2.2. Refused delivery

- 2.2.1. Where Customer refuses delivery of any order of saleable item(s), the carrier will return the item(s) in accordance with Ecolab instructions. The Customer will receive credit, less our standard re-stocking fee, and any applicable costs such as disposal fees. Where return shipping costs exceed the order total the return will not be credited.

2.3. Order cancellation

- 2.3.1. Order changes or cancellation must occur prior to order fulfillment. The Customer will receive credit, less our standard re-stocking fee, and any applicable costs such as disposal fees.

2.4. Risk of Loss

- 2.4.1. Customer should thoroughly inspect all items for shipping damage before accepting delivery. No credit will be given unless damage is identified and

Customer notifies their designated Ecolab Sales Representative or Customer Service within seven calendar days of the original order delivery.

Ecolab's responsibility for loss and damage ceases after the seven day period and no credit will be issued. Customer will be responsible for safe disposal in compliance with all legal and regulatory requirements plus any related handling and disposal costs Ecolab incurs. This cost may be recovered by invoicing the Customer.

2.5. Damage or lost in transit

- 2.5.1. Customer and/or Customer's authorized third party carrier is liable for damage or lost returns in transit where Customer arranges shipping.
- 2.5.2. Ecolab and/or Ecolab's authorized third party carrier is liable for damage or lost returns in transit where Ecolab arranges shipping through a pre-authorized bill of lading.

2.6. Handling and disposition of return Product

- 2.6.1. Customer may not return Products to Ecolab unless specific Products are pre-authorized for return by Ecolab in writing. If Customer has Products that cannot be returned to Ecolab (in accordance with this Policy), then Customer is responsible for proper handling and/or disposition of those products. Ecolab recommends Customer first use Products for the intended purpose, but in cases where Customer chooses to dispose of these Products, Customer must ensure the waste Product is re-packed, shipped, and disposed of in a manner that complies with all local, state, and federal laws and regulations. Customer will indemnify and hold Ecolab harmless from any damages or liability caused by Customer's failure to comply with such laws and regulations.
- 2.6.2. For Product returns allowed under this Policy that are Ecolab's responsibility to dispose of, Ecolab will arrange for safe handling.
- 2.6.3. Ecolab will not accept for disposal, or arrange for disposal, any non-Ecolab Products (for example, competitor products) from a Customer.

2.7. Customized Equipment

- 2.7.1. Customized equipment manufactured specifically to unique Customer specifications may not be returned.

2.8. Drop Shipments

- 2.8.1. An Ecolab drop shipment is defined where Ecolab sources Product and/or equipment from a third party and directly ships to an Ecolab Customer from that third party.
- 2.8.2. Drop shipment returns will only be accepted based on the original supplier's return acceptance criteria, and must be returned directly to the original supplier.

- 2.8.3. The Customer will receive credit for Product in acceptable condition as determined by original supplier's inspection process, less Ecolab's standard re-stocking fee, and may also be subject to additional reductions related to the original supplier's return policy if these exceed the re-stocking fee.

2.9. Return Packaging & Labelling

- 2.9.1. Returns must be properly prepared for transport in compliance with applicable transportation regulations, and clearly reflect the return authorization number. Ecolab may charge Customer for any related costs incurred due to Customer error.

2.10. Return Shipping and Timeline

- 2.10.1. For pre-authorized returns, Customer must ship in accordance with Ecolab's shipping terms and instructions within thirty calendar days of issuance of the return authorization or the return request is no longer authorized. If carrier has not contacted Customer within seven calendar days of authorization, Customer must notify Ecolab Customer Service.
- 2.10.2. Return shipments received marked "Freight Collect" will be refused. Ecolab is neither responsible for shipping costs related to Customer arranged shipment, nor any costs related to the Product.

2.11. Wrong Items Received

- 2.11.1. Only items included in the return authorization order will be accepted. No credit will be issued for other items and Customer may be responsible for any related handling and disposition costs Ecolab incurs.

2.12. Inspection

- 2.12.1. Product will be inspected upon return for conformance to Ecolab's return acceptance criteria.
- 2.12.2. After inspection, credit requests may be reduced or declined accordingly if the Customer is determined responsible including any additional costs for disposal.

2.13. Credit Issuance

- 2.13.1. Unless otherwise agreed, credits less applicable re-stocking fees or other charges may be issued in the same form as the payment of the original invoice, and will be issued after all inspection and handling is completed.

2.14. Re-Stocking Fees and Other Charges

- 2.14.1. Ecolab reserves the right to charge Customer for errors caused by the Customer based on this Policy. Examples include Products and equipment ordered in error, refused at delivery or not cancelled in time to stop delivery.
- 2.14.2. Re-stocking fees are intended to cover a portion of the related return freight and handling costs incurred by Ecolab. This fee is calculated based on the full cost of items invoiced and requested to be returned.
- 2.14.3. Reasonable other fees may be charged at the discretion of Ecolab including but not limited to disposal costs and additional handling fees.
